

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday - Monday, November 28 – December 2, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Troops, home from Cuba, let down guard, celebrate

Tuck may be going to GOP

Pittman eyes end to voting on judges

Base closure lobbyist hired

Women pursued by police wounded

Lawyer: Investigate jury allegation

Ed chief calls trust critical to schools

Minor to run for highway agency

Economy showing signs of strength

Editorials

Thanksgiving: A great holiday, accurate or not

Teacher pay: Mississippi is still near the bottom

Few firms utilizing child-care tax credit

Special session costly in 'personal' ways

DHS efforts earn federal funds

Hot support checks targeted

'High visibility, low tolerance' on roads MHP's holiday goal

Report: Gender bias not widespread in state's courts

Holiday shopping off to a slow start

Checks for unemployed may keep coming in Jan.

Editorials

Elections: LeSueur complaint could be moot

Education: Teachers fulfilling accountability

Hanukkah: Observance teaches lesson to all

Sen. Lott betrayed state on tanker bill

Appointing judges requires less cash

Cochran's influence on farm policy growing

Ed Reform Act meeting features Ayers, Winter

Automakers continue to eye South

Toyota plays the waiting game

Automakers in the south: a time line

Holiday celebrations may be premature, analysts say

Editorials

Tort reform: Unfinished business awaits in Jan.

Liberty!: Young Rumsfeld should be heeded

Ronald McDonald owes me big time

Ray Mosby: Bennie Thompson remains strong

Charlie Mitchell: Tests won't make school picture clear

Gov. Ronnie Musgrove: We should be thankful for Mississippi teachers

DHS director: Ignore rumors of a resignation

Education a priority for Choctaws

Falling tax income signals cuts

Award for suicide was unnecessary

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Jury-tamper probe sought

Toyota delays decision on site

Power balance may shift as Tuck switches

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Should appellate judges be appointed or elected?

Highway Patrol 'You will see us' during holidays

DANNY MCKENZIE: Ed Pittman is still speaking. When will someone listen?

Report: Amy Tuck expected to switch to GOP

EDITORIAL: Money and personality corrupt court politics

Legislators: Special session worth the effort

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Jury 'cut' probe suggested

Editorial 12/02: It all adds up to up

Hattiesburg American

State looks to task force for guidance

Meridian Star

Ronnie Shows recuperates, weighs options

• Will the state's image change? — Bynum

The tort reform achievement— V Carmichael

• Command decision

Laurel Leader-Call

Hiring freeze move to address budget woes

Shows ponders run for lieutenant governor as Tuck weighs party switch

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

The Clarksdale Press Register

Despite success, base consultant gets the ax

Tort bill good step, but it won't end jackpot justice

Attorney general goes after deadbeat parents

Daily Times Leader West Point

Vicksburg Post

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Enterprise Journal McComb

Subject area test results reported

Report: Tuck joining GOP

Editorial for Sunday, Dec. 1, 2002: Bridge program a budget victim

Editorial for Friday, Nov. 29, 2002

Will Lester: Louisiana Senate runoff closely watched

The Natchez Democrat

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Mississippi business lobby sees tort-reform bill as 'work in progress'

Washington lobbyist a waste of money

Tuck going where her friends are

Plenty of budget misery to go around

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

The Picayune Item

Hurricane season ends; 2002 fairly quiet, officials say

Hiring freeze move to address budget woes, officials say

Shows ponders run for lieutenant governor as Tuck weighs party switch

Mississippi business lobby sees tort reform bill as work in progress

Toyota plant decision delayed; rail access an issue

Starkville Daily News

Mississippi Legislature makes effort on tort reform 11/29

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

Jobless rate sees October increase

Governor helps celebrate county's newest industry

The Daily Sentinel Star Grenada

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

AMY MAKES THE SWITCH!: Republicans to gain Lieutenant Governor at Press Conference on Monday 11/28

Shows spokesperson says the congressman is "definitively considering" running against Tuck for Lt Gov 11/30

Reeves supports Tuck switch; Fleming thinks voters will feel cheated 11/30

MTLA President David Baria: Trial lawyers only exercising basic 'rights' 12/2

WashTimes: Mississippi restricts lawsuit damages 11/27

Stateline.org

National Media

Holiday Sales Figures Stoke an Early Wall St. Rally

G.O.P.'s 'Cardinals of Spending' Are Reined In by House Leaders

Poor Rural Schools Try to Meet New Federal Rules

Roadblocks Dominate NAFTA Highway

Leaders of Boll Weevil Program Sued

Emmett Till's Long Shadow

15,000 Objects Testify to a Peculiar Institution

The High Cost of Losing the Senate

Kerry to Start Run for President

Specter of a Mississippi Murder

Mississippi TV Stories

DHS May Avoid Job Freeze

Tuck Headed To GOP

Shows Still Has Political Ambitions

Toyota Plant in Mississippi Doesn't Look Good

Burton: Rhoads Batted .1000

TUCK PARTY SWITCH?

Weekly Papers

Holly Springs gets money for water

Potts Camp projects reap funding